Fees and Costs. Fees and costs affect the value of your account over time. Please ask your financial professional to give you personalized information on the fees and costs that you will pay.

- Asset-based fees. The Firm charges an annualized fee ranging between 0.60% and 1.50% of the value of your assets under management. The fee is determined based on the type and complexity of the client's account. We may include the value of assets which are not held with TD Ameritrade, including private equity and real estate funds which we may recommend to you and accounts managed by third party advisers, in calculating our advisory fee. Our asset-based investment management fee is billed and payable quarterly in advance based on the value of your account/assets at the end of the previous quarter. Our fees may be negotiable in certain limited circumstances and arrangements with any particular client may vary.
- If you participate in our wrap fee programs, you will pay the Program Sponsor a single fee, which includes money management fees, certain transaction costs, and custodial and administrative costs. We receive a portion of the wrap fee for our services. The overall cost you will incur if you participate in these wrap fee program may be higher or lower than you might incur by separately purchasing the types of securities.
- At our discretion, we may combine the account values of family members living in the same household to determine the applicable advisory fee. For example, we may combine account values for you and your minor children, joint accounts with your spouse, and other types of related accounts.
- In some cases, in addition to an asset based fee, we may also charge certain "qualified clients" as defined in Rule 205-3 under the Advisers Act a performance based fee, which will be determined with each client on a case by case basis. The performance based fee is subject to a high water mark which means that that you will only pay a performance fee to the extent that the amount of the capital increase exceeds the sum of any cumulative loss in your account on a per calendar year or quarter. Performance-based fees are generally payable annually or quarterly in arrears, on the earlier of the last day of each calendar year or quarter, or the date on which the investment management agreement is terminated.
- We will deduct our fee directly from your account through the qualified custodian holding your funds and securities in accordance with the asset management agreement. Further, the qualified custodian will deliver an account statement to you at least quarterly. These account statements will show all disbursements from your account. You should review all statements for accuracy.
- Regarding the private fund, Carmel receives a management fee quarterly in advance equal to 0.25% per quarter (1.0% annually). In addition, at the end of each year we receive an incentive allocation equal to 20% of the profit allocated to each investor in DaVinci (other than investors from whom we agree in our sole discretion to vary the incentive allocation) to the extent such profit exceeds any prior unrecovered losses (the "Loss Carryforward"). This limitation is commonly known as a "high water mark" and prevents us from receiving an incentive allocation as to net profits that simply restore previous net losses. Certain investors may have different management fee and incentive allocation arrangements as provided for in DaVinci's limited partnership agreement. Investors who are charged performance based fees will be required to meet the definition of a "qualified client" which includes natural persons who have a net worth greater than $2,100,000 (for new investors as of August 15, 2016) or have at least $1,000,000 under our management, immediately after entering into a subscription agreement.
- Investors generally may withdraw all or a portion of their capital at the end of the first fiscal quarter after the first anniversary of such investor's admission to DaVinci and the end of each fiscal quarter thereafter. Any withdrawal made within the first 12-month period after an investor is admitted to DaVinci will be subject to a 3% early withdrawal fee. An investor must give us at least 60 days prior written notice to the Administrator for any withdrawal.
- Some investments (such as mutual funds and variable annuities) impose additional fees that will reduce the value of your investment over time. Also, with certain investments such as variable annuities, you may have to pay fees such as "surrender charges" to sell the variable annuities.

For our services rendered as Manager, we receive from Carmel Art Block, LLC a fee of 1% of Carmel Art Block, LLC's net assets each year, which shall be payable quarterly in advance from the assets of Carmel Art Block, LLC and as further detailed in Carmel Art Block, LLC's operating agreement.

Conflicts of Interest. We benefit from the services we provide to you.

Our firm or persons associated with our firm may buy or sell securities for you at the same time we or persons associated with our firm buy or sell such securities for our own account. We may also combine our orders to purchase securities with your orders to purchase securities ("block trading"). A conflict of interest exists in such cases because we have the ability to trade ahead of you and potentially receive more favorable prices than you will receive. To mitigate this conflict of interest, it is our policy that neither our Associated Persons nor we shall have priority over your account in the purchase or sale of securities. All Associated Persons require written approval from our Chief Compliance Officer prior to any personal securities transaction.
